THE GCBL EXECUTIVES & MEMBERS BADGES

WHO ARE THE GCBL BADGES FOR?

GCBL badges are intended for both business and purely "civilian" use. Along with GCBL executives, to whom badges are a source of pride and help, GCBL members believe that these will also be of interest to collectors.

Currently, several different badges are in use to denote both, GCBL leadership, which includes advisors in addition to the board of directors. The GCBL advisory board, delegates from all over the world, YBLP delegates, and then local GCBL officials, and most importantly, GCBL members, also have their badge.

Members are awarded various badges, depending on the membership package.
